

Project	City	Purpose	Amount	Recipient	Taxpayers Interest
The Remote Rural Hawaii Job Training Project	Kahului HI	The Remote Rural Hawaii Job Training Project began in 1997 with the primary goal to focus on the unique employment needs of the Island of Lanai. Since its inception this initiative has positively affected the lives of over 10,000 Hawaiian citizens.	$2,300,000	University of Hawaii-Maui Community College	For the improvement of rural health care.
The University of Hawaii-Maui Community College Training & Education Opportunities	Kahului HI	The University of Hawaii-Maui Community College Training & Education Opportunities establishes job training programs through the Samoan/Asian Pacific Job Training program.	$2,000,000	University of Hawaii-Maui Community College	For job training.
The Hawaii State Asthma Control Project	Honolulu HI	The Hawaii State Asthma Control Project was established through a cooperative agreement with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) to coordinate disease tracking, science-based interventions, and state-wide collaboration and partnerships to reduce the burden asthma in the home, school, and workplace. The central role of the program is to provide the impetus to develop program capacity to address asthma from a public health perspective in order to bring about: a focus on asthma-related activity within the state; an increased understanding of asthma-related data and its application to program planning through development of an ongoing surveillance system; an increased recognition within the public health structure of a state of the potential to use a public health approach to reduce the burden of asthma; linkages of the state to many agencies and organizations addressing asthma in the population; participation in intervention program activities.	$200,000	State of Hawaii Health Department	To reduce the incidence and improve the care of those afflicted with asthma in Hawaii.
Lanai'i Community Health Center	Lanai'i City HI	To assist in construction of the Lanai'i Community Health Center which provides rural health care services to low-income Hawaiians. The major programs include health promotion and disease prevention.	$200,000	Lanai'i Community Health Center	To improve health care and access for the resident of rural Lanai'i.
Lanai'i Women's Initiative	Kihei HI	The Lanai Women's Initiative is building capacity in the women and families of this rural island community. The programs to be developed are in response to major gaps in health and education services. Programs will include health education, computer training, financial literacy and mentoring.	$100,000	Maui Economic Development Board	To improve the lives of women and families on Lanai's through job training and mentoring.
Hawaiian Primary Care Association	Honolulu HI	The Hawaiian Primary Care Association supports the needs of the 14 community health centers across the state with advocacy, technical assistance, and training. This initiative is to improve health centers' capacity to provide high quality primary care services by developing and supporting training, technical assistance, networking, health information technology, and collaboration among community health centers and other health care partners. The project also provides technical assistance and facilitation for acquisition and implementation of electronic health records among community health centers.	$1,850,000	Primary Care Association of Hawaii	To improve health centers' capacity to provide high quality primary care services by developing and supporting telehealth network among community health centers for clinical, administrative, and training purposes.
Maui Medical Center Simulation Center	Wailuku HI	To augment the simulation center to train nurses and other health professionals. Will increase proficiency for nurses when needed for specialized patient care.	$100,000	Maui Medical Center	For nursing education through state-of-the-nursing simulation education.
University of Hawaii at Hilo Department of Nursing	Hilo HI	On the Big Island there is a shortage of professional healthcare personnel. This will facilitate nursing education on Hawaii to retain nurses for island care.	$350,000	University of Hawaii at Hilo	For facilitation of nursing education and to encourage a pipeline of nurses for future generations to fill critical nursing position on the Big Island.
Molokai Ohana Health Center	Kaunakakai HI	To fund construction for this isolated community health center which concentrates on the rural health care needs caused by chronic disease, substance abuse, mental health issues, and care for the elderly. One problems of access includes the limited health facility infrastructure.	$750,000	Molokai Ohana Health Center	To improve the healthcare and access to healthcare services on Molokai.
Hamakua Anti-Drug Program	Honokaa HI	The Hamakua Health Center on the Big Island of Hawaii is an innovative state program to help Hawaiian children reject drugs. This program uses strategies that have worked in other communities, coupled with community input to design programs will target young people and their families in rural Hawaii.	$200,000	Hamakua Health Center	For anti-drug education.
Straub Hospital Burn Center	Honolulu HI	The Straub Hospital Burn Center is the only primary and tertiary burn treatment center for Hawaii, Alaska, and the Pacific regions. Its purpose is to provide care for pediatric and adult burn patients.	$150,000	Straub Hospital Burn Center	For training, education, and equipment for the only Burn Center in the Pacific Basin.
University of Hawaii School of Law Health Policy Center	Honolulu HI	The Health Policy Center at the University of Hawaii creates a center on health policy at the School of Law.	$300,000	University of Hawaii School of Law	advances an understanding on how the law influences and shapes all phases of health care and public health. Participants of this program will graduate better equipped to become leaders in managing local and national health care crises.

Project	City	Purpose	Amount	Recipient	Taxpayers Interest
Henry Kuualoha Giugni Archives	Honolulu HI	The Henry Kuualoha Giugni Archives will support the development of academic curricula and instructional materials that are based on archives of oral histories of Native Hawaiian history and culture. The Henry Kuualoha Giugni Kupuna Archives will facilitate the acquisition of historical records and stories unique to the culture of Native Hawaiians. The establishment of this archival collection is critical for recording, cataloguing, and digitalization of oral histories, both new and old, and securing their availability for development of innovative educational programs to assist Native Hawaiian students.	$200,000	Henry Kuualoha Giugni Archives, University of Hawaii	To preserve Native Hawaiian history and culture.
Kauai Economic Development Board Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) training	Lihue HI	The Kauai Economic Development Board will strengthen the science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) training opportunities for underrepresented groups in Kauai. The programs are designed to recruit, train and retain women/minorities in STEM careers. Working with industry and education partners, participants receive training, mentoring and technical assistance to increase diversity in STEM fields.	$700,000	Kauai Economic Development Board	To strengthen the science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) training opportunities for underrepresented groups in Kauai.
Maui Economic Development Board Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) training	Kihei HI	In response to industry demand for a technology skilled workforce, this program is targeting women and underrepresented groups, as an untapped resource to strengthen the science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) pipeline. Programs are designed to recruit, train and retain women/minorities in STEM careers. Working with industry and education partners, participants receive training, mentoring and technical assistance to increase diversity in STEM fields.	$450,000	Maui Economic Development Board	To strengthen the science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) training opportunities for underrepresented groups age (14 to adult)in Hawaii.
Maui Economic Development Board Science, Technology, Engineering and Math (STEM) training	Kihei HI	The objective is to engage girls and historically underrepresented students into science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) education pathways, focusing on elementary and intermediate school levels. The program uses equity-based models including training teachers in project-based, inquiry-based, gender and culturally inclusive classroom strategies. Job shadowing, mentoring, and career awareness activities showcase local technology professionals, including hands on activities making math and science relevant.	$800,000	Maui Economic Development Board	To strengthen the science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) training opportunities for underrepresented groups (K-12) in Hawaii.
Rural Computer Utilization Training	Kihei HI	This program addresses the unique challenges and barriers that rural communities face in accessing technology education and training. With targeted outreach to women and underserved communities, this program develops and implements progressive training models and services designed to mitigate geographic and cultural barriers. (Rural Computer Utilization Training)	$300,000	Maui Economic Development Board	To develop and implement progressive training models and services designed to mitigate geographic and cultural barriers.
Pacific Islands Center for Educational Development in American Samoa	Pago Pago, American Samoa	Pacific Islands Center for Educational Development in American Samoa provides enrichment programs to empower elementary and high school students with the academic and leadership skills to build their self-confidence to pursue a college education. PICED specializes in providing preparatory courses in national standardized college entrance examinations (SATs, TOEFLs, ACTs) and comprehensive college admissions and financial aid technical assistance to students and parents.	$500,000	Pacific Islands Center for Educational Development in American Samoa	To improve college readiness for American Samoa youth.
Hokule'a	Honolulu HI	The Polynesian Voyaging Center provides cultural education programs geared towards enhancing leadership skills and cultural knowledge through deep sea voyaging. Program targets low income, at-risk youth, providing a training and mentorship program to restore cultural pride.	$300,000	Polynesian Voyaging Society	To restore cultural pride, provide training and leadership skills for at-risk youth.
Clinical Pharmacy Training Program	Hilo HI	The University of Hawaii at Hilo Clinical Pharmacy Training Program will establish a clinical pharmacy training program and an applied science program. Requested funding is for operating costs for the ongoing development of a pharmacy education program to serve Hawaii and the U.S. affiliated Pacific region. Costs will cover construction, hiring faculty and staff, refining the curriculum model, securing sites for clinical training throughout the state and supporting the ongoing program accreditation process	$1,500,000	University of Hawaii at Hilo Clinical Pharmacy Training Program	To support the clinical pharmacy program, ensuring an ongoing pipeline of well training pharmacists in Hawaii for future generations
Native American and Native Hawaiian Museum Services.	Honolulu HI	The Bishops Museum will enhance library and museum services through a museum assessment, a conservation assessment, a conservation project support, and other projects targeted towards Native American and Native Hawaiian museum services.	$200,000	Bishop Museum	For cultural education.
Promoting Native Hawaiian and other Secondary Education	Hilo, HI	The Community College would provider the support, sponsorship and tuition for students who need additional courses prior to entering college.	$500,000	Hawaii Community College	To improve college readiness for Native Hawaiian and other students.
Promoting Filipino Secondary Education	Pearl City, HI	The Community College would provider the support, sponsorship and tuition for students who need additional courses prior to entering college.	$300,000	Leeward Community College	To improve college readiness for Filipino students.
University of Hawaii School of Nursing-Manoa	Honolulu HI	To enhance School of Nursing education programs.	$200,000	University of Hawaii School of Nursing-Manoa	To ensure that qualified nurses are available to fill vacancies in acute and long term care facilities for future generations, with an emphasis on promoting nursing care to underserved and rural populations.
University of Hawaii School of Medicine	Honolulu HI	To further develop medical school curriculum.	$200,000	University of Hawaii School of Medicine	To address the shortage of primary care providers in Hawaii.
Waimanlo Health Center	Waimanalo HI	To develop a Community Health Center based anti-drug campaign targeted to low income and at risk youth on the Waimanalo coast.	$200,000	Waimanlo Health Center	For anti-drug education

Project	City	Purpose	Amount	Recipient	Taxpayers Interest
Kalihi-Palama Health Center	Honolulu HI	To develop Community Health Center based program to address the high incidence of renal disease in the Filipino population.	$150,000	Kalihi-Palama Health Center	To improve health outcomes for Filipinos with renal disease
Huli Ao Center for Excellence in Native Hawaiian Law	Honolulu HI	Promotes education, scholarship, community outreach and collaboration on issues of law, culture, and justice for Native Hawaiians and other Pacific and indigenous peoples. The Center also provides preservation of invaluable historical, legal, and traditional and customary materials and provides support for Native Hawaiian and other law students as they pursue legal careers and leadership roles.	$1,500,000	University of Hawaii School of Law	For cultural education and cultural preservation.
Hawaii State Department of Education	Honolulu, HI	To fund building renovation projects.	$1,500,000	State of Hawaii Department of Education	To address infrastructure deterioration and fund needed building upgrades.